

Manchester Cathedral 600 Poetry Competition 2021

Conditions of Entry

1. By entering the competition, you are agreeing to the Conditions of Entry.
2. The competition is open to everyone.
3. Each entrant may submit as many poems as they wish.
4. Poems should be no more than 15 lines, excluding the title.
5. Poems must be in English and be the original work of the entrant (translations are not accepted).
6. Poems submitted cannot have been published or broadcast previously, including via the web, nor may they be awaiting the decision of any publisher or other competitions. Ineligible entries may be withdrawn without refund of the entry fee.
7. Poems should be typed on one side of A4. No manuscript should contain the author's name, address or any means of identification. Poems will be judged anonymously.
8. Entrants must accept that poems cannot be returned, and that entry fees are non-refundable.
9. Entries must be accompanied by an online entry form and an entry fee - £6.00 for the first poem and £2.00 per poem thereafter.
10. Entries must be submitted by 30 September 2021.
11. The judges' decisions are final. Due to the quantity of entries received, we regret that we cannot provide feedback on individual poems.
12. No entrant may win more than one prize.
13. Results will be announced on 30 November 2021 on the Cathedral website and via social media.
15. The ten winners will be published by the Cathedral in the Manchester Cathedral Poetry Competition 2021 booklet.
17. Manchester Cathedral Chapter has the right to use prize-winning poetry in connection with services, events, displays and publications arranged by the Cathedral, though copyright remains with the author.
18. Prizes may be presented at a special prize giving event at Manchester Cathedral. Poets may be invited to read their poems, alongside the competition judges.
19. Any profits from the competition will go to the work of the Booth Centre charity for the homeless, details of which can be found on their website at www.boothcentre.org.uk
20. We process your data in accordance with our Privacy Notice, which clearly outlines how your personal data is used and your legal rights regarding its use. You have the right to amend your data or withdraw consent regarding its use at any time. You can read our Privacy Notice online at www.manchestercathedral.org/privacy