

How to report hate crime

1. Call Greater Manchester Police on 101. If it's an emergency always call 999.
2. Visit the GMP website (www.gmp.police.uk) and fill in the online reporting form.

Fill in the form on the True Vision hate crime reporting site for England and Wales.

3. Get in touch with the Partnership Teams. A list of your local experts can be found on the GMP website.
4. Visit a reporting centre. These are independent, non-police centres that allow you to report events in total confidence. If you don't want to talk to anyone, you can pick up a self-reporting pack. For details, select the "Hate Crime reporting centre tab" on the GMP website for your local area.
4. Call Crimestoppers with information relating to a hate crime. For example, following a police appeal for witnesses after an incident. They'll not ask for your name and your call is not traced or recorded. Contact them on 0800 555 111 or visit the Crimestoppers website: www.crimestoppers-uk.org

Challenging Hate Forum PUBLIC EVENT Manchester Cathedral

*In support of Hate Crime Awareness Week
21-27 January 2013*

Tuesday 22 January 2013

The Event

A very warm welcome to Manchester Cathedral. The Challenging Hate Forum, which meets monthly at Manchester Cathedral, is hosting today's special public event to help raise awareness of hate crime as part of Hate Crime Awareness Week (21-27 January 2013).

We are delighted to welcome local artist and curator Alison Kershaw, working with volunteers from St Luke's Art Project in Longsight, who will oversee the creation of a piece of artwork to raise awareness of hate crime; i.e. what hate crime is, how to prevent it and how to report it.

Hate crime is defined as any criminal offence driven by hostility or prejudice based on someone's disability, race, religion or belief, sexual orientation, gender or gender identity. We hope to incorporate all of these aspects in the artwork.

This is a public event to which we welcome representatives of faith groups and organisations, the individuals and groups with whom they work, members of our Cathedral community and members of the general public.

Do please get involved by making prints with the art team and we hope that you will find this event a positive, stimulating and informative experience.
